

Tax Compliance

You have to pay tax. How much though? Well that depends...

Every situation is different and no year is the same, working out exactly how much tax you owe can be a stressful job. Get it wrong and you might find yourself in trouble with Inland Revenue.

In New Zealand, individuals and companies are required to pay the right amount of tax at the right time and prove that they have done so correctly. Accurate returns and accounts must be filed for all taxable activities. In doing so it doesn't help that the rules are constantly changing.

As accountants it's our job to keep up with all changes to tax law. We make sure that our clients are fully compliant and only pay the tax they need to. Proper tax planning can help minimise tax due and structure payments so that there are no surprises to you or your cashflow.

Lots of accountants do tax compliance, but few invest enough in the relationship. Every Invisible Office Tax Compliance client receives a client manager who will build a relationship with you and get to know your business. Your client manager is there as your first port of call for any questions you may have. If they don't know the answer they'll use our other team members to find it. Your client manager will also have questions for you so they can make sure that we claim, save and protect as much as we can for you.
