

Things to Know about Belt Promotions

- There are attendance requirements for testing
 - Must attend AT LEAST 10 classes to earn an attendance stripe (a white strip of tape on the belt)
- The week before testing is prep week: ALL STUDENTS CAN ATTEND UNLIMITED CLASSES.
- Prep week is when students will earn their red testing stripe
 - RED = READY to be promoted
- A full uniform must be worn (no t-shirts, summer gis, or gi shorts)
- YOU MUST SIGN UP FOR TESTING AT THE FRONT DESK PRIOR TO TEST WEEK (fees apply for late registrations or make up tests).
- Your UMAAI membership must be current: you can renew if necessary when you pay your test registration.
- We are always closed the Thursday and Friday after testing
- Regular classes commence the Saturday after testing

Please see the front desk for specific test dates and times

Testing is more a performance of material learned than a traditional pass/fail test

Perfect Attendance Award Policy

- 1st Cycle – Outstanding Attendance Patch
- 2nd Cycle – Small Trophy and Attendance Star
- 3rd Cycle – Attendance Star
- 4th Cycle – Small Trophy and Attendance Star
- 5th Cycle – Attendance Star
- 6th Cycle – Small Trophy and Attendance Star

3 Small trophies can be turned in (in like new condition) to exchange for a Perfect Attendance Cup!

Cycles do not have to be consecutive to earn awards.

Perfect attendance is based on attendance at two classes/week for the cycle and can be achieved as long as you make up missed classes to achieve the posted number for the cycle.

It is YOUR responsibility to track your classes each cycle.

Please turn in Attendance sheet by Saturday of progress check week.
