

Thank you for being here. You being here excites us. Our goal is to provide to you the best of everything that we could possibly imagine. Inside the depths of our wine list you will find many different possible experiences. They vary in style and technique – just as our guests do.

The experience of enjoying wine is broad. It can be simple and pleasurable. It can be complex and brooding. It can be both – and often is! We've selected the best wines available to us, for you to enjoy. The countless Domaines, Chateaus, Bodegas, Tenutas, and Fattorias that make the amazing stuff we enjoy are really the ones that make this happen. Fresh, new, shiny, and polished vs. developing, tertiary, and harmonious – we want you not only to know these different experiences, but to enjoy them.

The selection provided tonight has you in mind. There is one thing that brings the wines and you – really, that brings us – together: The Oven's Indian Cuisine. You're here to enjoy, and we're here to make sure that you do so. On staff we have two full-time Sommeliers. They will be delighted to help you pinpoint what is meant to be on your table tonight.

Charles Ludwig – Wine Director / Sommelier

Jordan Vanek – Sommelier

Ngawang Rinchen – Proprietor / Local Hero

Wine Spectator has graced us with its "Award of Excellence" for twelve years, and, for the last four years, its "Best of Award of Excellence".
