

FRONT RANGE FIRE RESCUE

CAREER FIREFIGHTER HIRING ELIGIBILITY LIST

Front Range Fire Rescue is excited to announce the creation of a career firefighter hiring eligibility list. We anticipate using this list to hire at least one full-time firefighter in August of 2020. Front Range Fire Rescue protects approximately 22,000 people in the towns of Johnstown and Milliken, as well as portions of Weld and Larimer County in Colorado. The area is growing quickly, and we anticipate adding a fourth fire station in the coming years.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Firefighter recruits attend the Front Range Fire Consortium (FRFC) Academy for 16 weeks and are paid $21/hour (40-hour workweek) during their time at the academy. Upon successful completion of the academy, members begin a year-long probationary period and earn $49,000/year. Top grade firefighters currently make $65,000 year. FRFR firefighters work a 48/96 schedule on a 56-hour workweek.
