0. FOREWORD

Only French Federation proposed to organize 2014 World InLine Hockey Championships, at Toulouse in Palais des Sports, a nice venue for all kind of Sports. A temporary rink will be installed during the first fortnight of July in this nice venue with a SportCourt floor. With the result of the survey that CIRILH conducted (deadline on 2013, October 15th) , it appeared that we need a solution to receive the maximum of teams.

Toulouse Organization Committee sought another rink and proposed "La Ramée" . This Gymnasium is Toulouse Hockey Club Homeland (The floor is a new SportCourt). Despite it is a small rink, CIRILH decided to accept this facility. Before dividing our World Championships into several events, it was the only solution in this year of transition.

With two rinks, CIRILH and Toulouse Organization Committee planned to receive 16 Junior Men Teams plus 16 Senior Women Teams during first week, then 8 Junior Women Teams plus 24 Senior Men Teams during second week. The number of Junior Men Teams was incredibly high. CIRILH required that organizers accept 20 Junior Men Teams.
