Students and families new to Greenacres please go to Kākano 1 at 4.50pm ready for the welcome and everyone else please meet at the hall. Please deliver your plates to share to Te Rito before the powhiri begins. After such a crisp start to the day we are confident we will have a starry sky to enjoy tonight, wrap up warm!

Check your child's bag for a letter coming home today about the above trip which will be taking place in Week 1 next term. Because the first trip happens on the second day of school next term, we would greatly appreciate parents returning the slips and making payment this term, so we can organise helpers etc, before the holidays.

Quiz Night - 20 June

This was a fun evening for all who attended with many great prizes on offer. Thank you to all those who came along and participated, and to the Events Committee for again organising a great evening which also raised valuable funds for our students.

ASB Getwise Programme

This week all our students had a visit from Vane Sopoaga from ASB who was teaching our students about financial literacy. This programme teaches kids to become cash clever and learn good money habits from an early age to set them up for the future.

Some quotes from our students:

"you can sell your skills, like sewing, etc to make money" - Jillieanna

"you can save money and share money" - Aadrit

"if you have money you can put it in your bank account and get free money back called interest - the earlier you start the more you save" - Paige

WELCOME
HAERE MAI

There were no new students to welcome this week.

Disco 28 June

Today is the last day to return the form for disco tickets. Remember to send your children with their money to buy the pizza slices on the night.

Green Day

Our student council are organising another fun Green Day next week, look out for their fantastic posters around the school for more information. The staff are looking forward to dressing up in their best green outfits on the last day of term!

Tomorrow we are all looking forward to Colin Decio (concert pianist) and Ingrid Prosser (performance poet and singer) entertaining all the students with their performance of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" - what an exciting couple of weeks our students are having!

Kind Regards
