LIGHTING OF THE CHRIST CANDLE

One: The light of Christ has come to us.

All: Let us celebrate God's abiding love!

CALL TO WORSHIP (from Gen. 2 and Ps 121)

One: As God set Abraham and Sarah on a journey,
God calls us to follow in trust.

All: God is able to make us more than we have been and blesses us on the way.

One: Who is our keeper?

All: The Lord is our keeper,
by day and by night.

One: How long will God protect us?

All: God will keep our going out and our coming in from this time on and forevermore.

OPENING PRAYER (said by all)

Creator God, maker of heaven and earth, lead us to the still waters when the storms are raging.

Lead us through the mountains and valleys.

May we know You are guiding us always on this journey of faith.

Sometimes we find You are leading the way;
sometimes You are the one who pushes
and prods us from behind,

making sure we are not lost or lagging.

Most of all, may we feel Your presence beside us and within us.

Lead us into the way of abundant life.

In the name of Christ, our companion, we pray. Amen.

♦ Worship Next Week ♦

During worship on the Fourth Sunday after Epiphany, we will move back into the ecumenical lectionary. Featured among the scripture readings is Paul's great hymn to love (1 Corinthians 13: 1-13). This text has been effectively hijacked into romantic captivity. It is the biblical text heard most often used at weddings because it is (incorrectly) understood as praising the value of romantic, human love. What gets effectively ignored in such a reading is that Paul was writing to the Corinthian church, a faith community that was having a very difficult time indeed staying together (in this sense perhaps its wedding use may be inspired after all). Paul's aim is to point out that love offers freedom from the competitive "spiritual gift" pursuits that have been ripping the Corinthian church apart. Without love it really doesn't matter what kind of budget, building, or mission strategy a congregation might have. We may pursue different forms of spirituality, aspire to proper doctrine or be social justice zealots. None of this is important if, along the way, we forget about loving our sisters and brothers. The final element in Paul's hymn is the assurance that the patient, kind love that he describes will not end. Love will remain, because God's love does not falter nor fail. We are ultimately drawn into that love and remade by it so that we become lovers ourselves.

◆ Celebrating our stained glass windows in Worship ◆

2019 marks the 90th anniversary of the completion of our beautiful sanctuary designed by renowned Scottish architect John Gibb Morton, who used the ruin of Melrose Abbey as his creative inspiration – hence our church name. In honour of the anniversary, and in anticipation of our forthcoming celebration weekend in late March, elements of worship on each of the forthcoming Sundays will feature themes from one of the glorious stained glass windows that adorn the sanctuary walls. We begin this week with the Creation window of the South Transept.

◆ Acoustic Blend Cafe – February 2 ◆

Join us to hear Joss & Em: Jocelyn Russell and Emily Kemp are two very versatile performers playing sultry covers and originals. Songs in the styles of rock, jazz, pop, folk and blues, with some originals in the mix. Their music is vocal-driven, full of rich, sultry harmonies that create a down-to-earth feel of true feminine beauty. We had Emily as a feature performer in April of 2012 and we are excited to have her back again with Jocelyn Russell. Advance Tickets available online for $14 or buy at the door: $18 or Two for $35.

◆ Melrose Annual General Meeting ◆

The Melrose Annual General Meeting is February 10th directly following the service. Hard copies of the Annual Report are available today in the parlour after worship. Please sign the sheet indicating you have received your copy. If possible, one copy per household, please.

◆ Motion for Annual Meeting on February 10, 2019 ◆

The Melrose Board recommends that the following motion be considered at the upcoming Annual Meeting:

That the congregation approve the withdrawal of up to $40,000 from the capital of the Sustaining Fund in order to meet the needs of the operating budget for 2019.

◆ PAR Donations ◆
