3. Composition

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is comprised solely of non-executive Directors, with no fewer than three members, all being on the SeaLink Travel Group Board of Directors. The Chair of the Committee is to be an Independent member of the Board, who is not the Chair of the Board. A quorum shall comprise of two members.

The Secretary of the Committee will be the Company Secretary or such other person as nominated by the Board.

4. Procedures

The Committee will meet as required but should meet at least two times a year. An agenda will be prepared for each meeting and distributed in advance of the meeting.

Minutes of the meeting will be prepared and will be circulated to the Committee Chair and then to the Committee and Board after each meeting.

The Committee Chair will report to the Board after each Committee meeting, including recommendations on any specific decisions or actions the Board should consider relevant.

In the first instance, the Chief Executive Officer or delegate will provide assistance and support to the Committee required for the Committee to discharge its responsibilities.

The Committee may have access to adequate internal and external resources, including seeking advice or assistance from external advisor or consultants if required to enable the Committee to fulfil its role.

5. Conflict of Interest

The Committee will from time to time establish protocols for the Committee to directly engage external remuneration advisors on matters pertaining to the remuneration of the CEO or Executive Team. The advisor will be commissioned by the Chair of the committee, and their advice will be provided directly to the Committee.

Executives, including Executive Directors will not participate in that portion of the meeting at which their own remuneration or its structure will be discussed.

6. Approval and Review of Charter

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter will be approved by the Board. The Committee will review the Charter every two years to maintain its relevance and the effectiveness of the Committee and make recommendations to the Board for any amendments.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter will be available to shareholders and should be posted on the Company's website.
